

A large vertical calligraphic character '奮' is shown at the top. Below it is a smaller, lighter version of the same character. A stroke order diagram is overlaid on the character, showing the sequence of strokes with numbered arrows. The strokes are numbered from 1 to 16, indicating the direction and order of writing each part of the character.

𠂇

The radical consists of two vertical strokes forming a crossbar at the top, with a vertical stroke on the right side. The number 100 is written vertically to its right.